AL-BILADH
ENTERPRISES

Mr. Waleed Ahmed with his analytical approach to finding a solution in the pharma industry. Mr. Waleed left his own pharma business to start his own engineering company, so his creativity towards fabricated engineering and innovative ideas would deliver solutions to design engineering and the end-users. That idea was the reason for the birth of metal forming and fabrication it had its humble beginnings, Mr. Waleed focused on design innovation and after-sales services and earned Rakers a prestigious name in stainless steel metal handling. He has created engineering and fabrication solutions for leading industries in Pakistan. His leadership and professional approach have brought Rakers synonymous with international standards in discrete and process manufacturing.

Today – Rakers is reliable supplier for laboratory with broad range of represented products and solutions, but it's not the final destination. Company strives to become active partners in research activities not only by supplying products, but also by providing know-how with research methods and most effective ways of conducting researches. Rakers develops more effective ways for clients to obtain needed material for research. In this context Rakers is determined to become reliable partner for laboratory in nearest future.
